Iqra Education offers a distinct learning community

Iqra Education (LEAMS) Group started in the UAE in the early 1980s. Abdul Lahir Hassan, founder and chairman of Iqra Education, believes in the words of Theodore Roosevelt — “Believe you can and you’re halfway there.”

Hassan’s son Nabil Lahir Hassan, who is chief executive, believes in creating a caring and collective learning community that ensures each student achieves scholarly and personal distinction.

Based in the UAE, today Iqra Education is a privately held group of K-12 schools and pre-KG nurseries in Dubai and Sharjah. The group has four fully functional schools, three of which are located in Dubai and one in Sharjah. Currently, a total of 6,000 students are registered across its schools and nurseries.

Chairman Hassan said: “I would like to thank each student, parent and staff member for their support in making Iqra Education what it is today.”
